

Education

2016 Assessed qualified as associate professor at University of Copenhagen
2016 Course in Academic English, Aarhus University
2015 Diploma for University Teaching Education for Assistant Professors, Aarhus University
2013 PhD, in education, history and special needs education
2007 Diploma in: Leading processes among professionals, at: Proceskonsulentuddannelse hos Green & Andersen, Erhvervspsykologer.
2004 Assessed qualified as associate professor within the University College System, i.e.
1995 Masters in History and Education, Roskilde University.

Career

2017- Associate professor, Department of Media, Cognition and Communication, University of Copenhagen
2013-2017 Head of the Danish Section of Nordic Network Disability Research (nndr.dk)
2013-2016 Assistant professor at Department of Education (DPU), Aarhus University
2015 Visiting professor at College of Educational Studies Chapman University, Orange, California
2013-2015 Visiting professor at the research department (FOU) at UCC, University College Capital
2012-2013 Research Assistant at Aarhus University
2009-2012, PhD. fellow, Aarhus University
2009-2011 Member of the Academic Board, at DPU, Aarhus University
2000-2013 Associate professor at UCC, University College Capital, Copenhagen

Research activities

2017 – participating in research group on welfare studies, University of Copenhagen
2017 – visiting professor at the educational departments at Deakin University, Melbourne & University of Tasmania, Hobart.
2013 – 2017 Research in Inclusion, diagnosing, special needs education and testing in a present and historical perspective
2014-2017 Research in the historical emergence of educational psychiatry and educational psychology
2012-2014 Research in the historical development of the profession of the Kindergarten teachers (Pædagogprofessionens historie)
2009 - 2012 PhD-project: Research in diagnosing, special needs education and problem categories in schools in a present and a historical perspective
2011 Research stay at Department for Studies in Education, University of Madison, Wisconsin
2010 Research in the history of disability at College of Educational Studies, Chapman University, Orange, California.